The Illinois Religious Freedom Protection and Civil Union Act provides that persons of the same or opposite sex who enter into a civil union must be afforded the same obligations, protections, and legal rights as married persons. This law became effective June 1, 2011, and is designed to ensure that civil unions and marriage are treated identically under Illinois law. In accordance with law, this policy will be interpreted to provide the same benefits and protections to persons in a civil union or in a marriage.
